

develop certain policies and procedures governing procurement; requiring the Board of Regents to develop an information technology plan that meets certain requirements; authorizing the Board of Regents to establish, invest in, operate, and finance certain business entities under certain circumstances; altering certain employee grievance procedures; reestablishing the Private Donation Incentive Program; establishing how the amount of matching funds under the Private Donation Incentive Program will be determined and payments under the Private Donation Incentive Program will be made; requiring that the payments to certain institutions not exceed certain amounts; establishing certain eligibility criteria; requiring certain foundations to provide certain information annually; defining certain terms; providing for the application of Private Donation Incentive Program funds; prohibiting Private Donation Incentive Program funds from being included in the computation of certain types of aid; providing for the administration of the Private Donation Incentive Program; establishing a new program review and approval process for ~~the institutions in the University System of Maryland~~ certain institutions of higher education ~~the institutions in the University System of Maryland~~; exempting the University System of Maryland from certain requirements for information technology and telecommunication; exempting the University System of Maryland ~~and Morgan State University~~ from certain provisions of law governing the oversight of public improvement projects by the Department of General Services; requiring the Department of General Services to advise the Board of Public Works on certain contracts that exceed a certain amount under certain circumstances; requiring certain procurements by the University System of Maryland ~~and Morgan State University~~ to comply with certain policies and procedures; requiring certain contracts that exceed a certain amount to be subject to review and approval by the Board of Public Works ~~and the Administrative, Executive, and Legislative Review Committee~~; making certain employees of the University System of Maryland eligible to participate in collective bargaining under certain circumstances and contingent on the passage of certain legislation altering the time period after which certain proposals submitted to the Commission shall be deemed approved; authorizing presidents to establish and abolish certain programs under certain circumstances; requiring the Board of Regents to review ~~and approve~~ and approve certain actions; ~~proposed new programs~~; requiring the Commission to review certain actions to determine whether they comply with certain requirements of State and federal law; ~~requiring presidents to resolve certain concerns regarding compliance with certain laws before implementing certain programs~~ authorizing the Commission to ~~veto implementation of a proposed new program or recommend certain reductions in State aid under certain circumstances~~ make the final determination on approval of certain proposed new programs for certain reasons; requiring the Commission to monitor the new program development and review process and submit a certain report; providing for the termination of the ~~mission and~~ program development and review process after a certain period of time; defining a certain term; requiring the Commission to develop certain funding guidelines; requesting the Governor to include certain funding in certain budgets; requiring the Governor to convene a certain conference for certain purposes and to establish a group to review certain reporting