(2) Shall approve a location in Baltimore County for this festival which does not hold an alcoholic beverages license.

(h) The Baltimore County Board of License Commissioners shall adopt regulations for implementing this section.

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1999.

Approved May 27, 1999.

CHAPTER 694

(House Bill 1195)

AN ACT concerning

Higher Education - Educational Excellence Awards - Economic Development Grants

FOR the purpose of allowing qualified recipients of an Educational Excellence Award to also receive awards under the Economic Development Student Assistance Grant Program and the Maryland Science and Technology Scholarships Program; requiring each recipient of a Guaranteed Access Grant to have satisfied a certain grade point average requirement; establishing a minimum award under the Educational Excellence Award Program; clarifying that continuation of the award is contingent upon a recipient's making satisfactory progress toward a degree and satisfying the standards of the institution; amending the Economic Development Assistance Grants Program where necessary to conform with this purpose; and generally relating to financial assistance for higher education.
