

REVISOR'S NOTE: This section is new language derived without substantive change from former Art. 41, §§ 4-601(b) and (e) and 4-612(d).

In the introductory language of subsection (a) of this section, the reference to other duties "established by law" is substituted for the former reference to other duties "provided for herein or by law" for brevity.

In subsection (a)(1)(ii) of this section, the reference to the maximum term or terms of "confinement" is substituted for the former reference to the maximum term or terms of "the sentence" for consistency throughout this article. See General Revisor's Note to this article.

In subsection (a)(1)(iii) of this section, the reference to "offenders" is substituted for the former reference to "parolees" for consistency with § 7-502(b) of this article, which provides that "[a]n individual on mandatory supervision is subject to all laws, rules, regulations, and conditions that apply to parolees". Correspondingly, in subsection (a)(1)(iv) and (2)(ii) of this section, the references to an "offender" are substituted for the former references to "parolees" and, in subsection (a)(1)(iv) of this section, the reference to a violation of a condition of parole "or mandatory supervision" is added.

In subsection (a)(1)(iv) of this section, the reference to a violation of "a condition of" parole or mandatory supervision is added to state expressly that which was only implied in the former reference to a violation of "parole" and for consistency within this subtitle.

Also in subsection (a)(1)(iv) of this section, the reference to authority delegated "by the Commission" is added to state expressly that which was only implied in the former law, i.e., the Commission is the entity that may delegate authority to issue a retake warrant, and for consistency with § 7-206(2) of this article.
