GENERAL REVISOR'S NOTE TO SUBTITLE:

In revising the various articles of the Annotated Code, it was the usual practice of the former Commission to Revise the Annotated Code and article review committees to make very few, if any, changes to interstate compacts. The Correctional Services Article Review Committee has made only minor technical and stylistic changes to the Uniform Act for Out-of-State Parolee Supervision, which comprises this subtitle. These changes include making minor changes to conform with current drafting conventions and deleting pronouns that are not neutral as to gender. These changes do not affect the substance of the Compact.
