REVISOR'S NOTE: This section is new language derived without substantive change from former Art. 41, § 4-511A.

In subsection (a) of this section, the reference to an "individual" is substituted for the former reference to a "person" because only a human being, and not the other entities included in the defined term "person", can suffer personal physical injury or death.

The Correctional Services Article Review Committee notes, for consideration by the General Assembly, that the meaning of the reference to a "request ... for notification" in the introductory language of subsection (b) of this section is unclear. The Committee is uncertain as to whether this means a generic "request for notification" or a specific "request for notification of consideration for commutation, pardon, or remission of sentence". The General Assembly may wish to clarify this issue. For a more detailed discussion of this issue, see § 7-801(b)(1)(ii) of this subtitle and accompanying Revisor's Note.

In subsection (c)(1) and (2) of this section, the references to a victim impact
