

Defined term: "Correctional officer" § 8-201

(G) CORRECTIONAL UNIT.

(1) "CORRECTIONAL UNIT" MEANS A UNIT OF STATE, COUNTY, OR MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENT THAT IS RESPONSIBLE UNDER A STATUTE, ORDINANCE, OR COURT ORDER FOR THE INVESTIGATION, CARE, CUSTODY, CONTROL, AND SUPERVISION OF INMATES AND INDIVIDUALS WHO:

(I) HAVE BEEN PLACED ON PAROLE OR MANDATORY SUPERVISION;

(II) HAVE BEEN PLACED ON PROBATION; OR

(III) HAVE RECEIVED A SUSPENDED SENTENCE.

(2) "CORRECTIONAL UNIT" DOES NOT INCLUDE THE DEPARTMENT OF JUVENILE JUSTICE.

REVISOR'S NOTE: This subsection is new language derived without substantive change from former Art. 41, § 4-301(b)(4).

In the introductory language of paragraph (1) of this subsection, the word "individuals" is substituted for the former references to "persons" because only individuals can be placed on parole, probation, or mandatory supervision or receive a suspended sentence. See § 1-101 of this article for the definition of "person".

Also in the introductory language of paragraph (1) of this subsection, the word "unit" is substituted for the former reference to "any governmental organization or activity" for consistency throughout this article. See General Revisor's Note to this article.

Also in the introductory language of paragraph (1) of this subsection, the references to "investigation" and "custody" are added for consistency with subsection (e)(1) of this section.

In item (1)(i) of this subsection, the reference to "mandatory supervision" is added for consistency with § 7-502(b) of this article, which provides that "[a]n individual on mandatory supervision is subject to all laws, rules, regulations, and conditions that apply to parolees".

Also in item (1)(i) of this subsection, the reference to individuals "who have been placed on parole" is substituted for the former reference to individuals "declared to be parolees" for grammatical consistency with item (1)(ii) of this subsection.

In item (1)(iii) of this subsection, the reference to individuals "who have received a suspended sentence" is substituted for the former reference to individuals who have been "placed on ... suspension of sentence" for clarity. An individual is not "placed" on a suspended sentence. An individual "receives" a suspended sentence.
