REVISOR'S NOTE: This section is new language derived without substantive change from former Art. 27, § 704A(e).

In the introductory language of subsection (a) of this section, the reference to deductions that are "[i]n addition to any other deductions allowed under this subtitle" is added to state expressly that which was only implied in the former reference to an "additional deduction".

Also in the introductory language of subsection (a) of this section, the reference to a calendar month of "presentence or postsentence confinement" is added to state expressly that which was only implied in the former law, i.e., an inmate is allowed deductions under this section for time served in both presentence and postsentence confinement. No substantive change is intended.

Also in the introductory language of subsection (a) of this section, the reference to an inmate's "term of confinement" is substituted for the former reference to an inmate's "period of ... commitment or sentence" for consistency throughout this article. See General Revisor's Note to this article.
