

participation "by a participant" are deleted as redundant.

In the introductory language of subsections (e) and (n) of this section, the references to a "court" are substituted for the former references to a "judge" for consistency with subsection (f) of this section.

In subsections (f)(3) and (o)(2) of this section, the references to an individual's "confinement" are substituted for the former references to an individual's "incarceration" for consistency throughout this article. See General Revisor's Note to this article.

The Correctional Services Article Review Committee notes, for consideration by the General Assembly, that subsection (h) of this section is one of many provisions in this article that relates to inmates who escape while legitimately outside the confines of a correctional facility (e.g., while on work release, home detention, pretrial release, weekend leave, compassionate leave, family leave, etc.). For a discussion of the Committee's perspective on these provisions, see § 3-305(c) of this article and accompanying Revisor's Note.

In subsection (i)(2)(iv) of this section, the reference to "reimburs[ing]" the State is substituted for the former reference to "mak[ing] repayment to" the State for brevity.

In subsection (i)(2)(v) of this section, the reference to "reimburs[ing]" the State is substituted for the former reference to "mak[ing] court-ordered repayment to" the State for brevity and clarity. The reference to "court-ordered" repayment is unnecessary in light of the first clause of subsection (i)(2)(v) of this section.

In subsection (i)(3) of this section, the former reference to any balance "in the participant's total earnings" is deleted as implicit in the reference to "any balance".

The Correctional Services Article Review Committee notes, for consideration by the General Assembly, that subsection (i) of this section sets forth rules governing the disposition of an inmate's earnings. The Committee further notes that there are significant inconsistencies throughout this article in statutory provisions governing the disposition of an inmate's earnings in different contexts. See, e.g., §§ 3-804, 3-807(e)(1), 9-504(d), 9-512(b), 11-319(b), 11-407(b), 11-604, 11-703(d)(4), 11-704(d), 11-706(b)(5), 11-707(b), 11-708(b)(7), 11-711(g), 11-712(c)(5), 11-714(c)(4), 11-715(e), 11-716(g), 11-717(e), 11-718(e), 11-719(b), 11-722(b), 11-724(g), and 11-725(b) of this article and accompanying Revisor's Notes. The General Assembly may wish to examine all of the relevant provisions and determine whether they should be changed to reflect a more consistent policy in this area.

In subsection (j) of this section, the reference to any "other" judicial officer is deleted to avoid the implication that the Administrator or any other agent or employee of Baltimore County is "judicial" in nature.
