(a) Each life insurer shall have and continually maintain an amount equal to its entire reserves, as required by this article, in any combination of the types of assets authorized by subsections [(c) through (l)] (C) THROUGH (P) of this section subject to the limit, if any, set for each type or class of investment.

(b) (1) For purposes of this section, the entire reserves of a life insurer is the sum of the amounts listed in paragraph (2) of this subsection less the amount of net uncollected and deferred premiums.

(2) The sum to be used in paragraph (1) of this subsection consists of:

(i) the net present value of all outstanding policies in force, less reinsurance;

(ii) reserves for accidental death benefits and total and permanent disability benefits, less reinsurance;

(iii) the present value of supplementary contracts, including dividends left with the life insurer to accumulate at interest;

(iv) liabilities on canceled policies that are not included in net reserve and on which a surrender value may be demanded, and outstanding policy claims and losses; and

(v) any additional reserves that the Commissioner reasonably requires for the life insurance.

(c) The reserve investments of a life insurer may include:

(1) cash or deposits in checking or savings accounts, under certificates of deposit, or in any other form in a national or State bank or trust company; or

(2) shares or deposits in a savings and loan association or building and loan association to the extent that the investment or account is insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

(d) (1) The reserve investments of a life insurer may include:
