

(f) The tellers of an election may not count a ballot unless it is:

(1) Mailed to the tellers; and

(2) Received by the tellers not later than midnight of the 7th day before the date of the annual meeting.

(g) The tellers of the election shall:

(1) Verify or cause to be verified the name of each voter and the credit union account number of the voter as it appears on the identification form;

(2) Authenticate any questionable or challenged identification form;

(3) Keep the verified identification form and ballot for safekeeping pending the count of the vote;

(4) Keep separate any questionable or challenged identification form and ballot until the authentication, verification, or challenge is resolved;

(5) Determine that each eligible voter does not vote more than once AND IS A MEMBER IN GOOD STANDING; and

(6) After the time set in subsection (f) (2) of this section, tally the votes and report the results to the board [of directors].

(h) The board [of directors of the credit union] shall report the results of the election at the annual meeting of the members.

[6-216.] 6-330.

[(a) The directors shall elect an executive officer, who may be designated as chairman of the board or president; a vice-chairman of the board or one or more vice-presidents; a treasurer; and a secretary. The persons elected shall be the executive officers of the credit union.

(b) At the first meeting of the board of directors after the annual meeting of the members, the board shall elect the executive officers and, if the bylaws so provide, an assistant secretary and assistant treasurer.

(c) The president or chairman of the board, as the case may be, shall be elected from among the members of the board of directors.

(d) If the bylaws so provide, one individual may hold the offices of secretary and treasurer.

(e) An officer holds office for the term that the bylaws provide.

(f) Each officer shall take an oath to perform faithfully the duties of the office.

(g) If the board of directors decides to choose a chairman of the board, and a vice-chairman of the board, instead of a president and vice-president, they may employ an officer in charge of operations whose title shall be either president or general manager.]
