

(3) IF THE COURT ORDERS NOTICE BY PUBLICATION UNDER THIS SUBSECTION, THE SHOW CAUSE ORDER SHALL BE PUBLISHED AT LEAST ONCE IN ONE OR MORE NEWSPAPERS OF GENERAL CIRCULATION PUBLISHED IN THE COUNTY IN WHICH THE PETITION IS FILED.

(d) If a person is notified under this section and fails to file notice of objection within the time stated in the show cause order [or if a person's notification has been waived under subsection (c) of this section]:

(1) the court shall consider the person who is notified [or whose notice is waived] to have consented to the adoption or to the guardianship; and

(2) the petition shall be treated in the same manner as a petition to which consent has been given.

(e) (1) For a petition filed by a local department of social services, the court shall determine that a reasonable, good faith effort has been made to identify the last known address of the parent if the petitioner shows, by affidavit or testimony, that inquiries were made after the petition was filed, or within the 6 months preceding the filing of the petition, with the following:

(i) the State Motor Vehicle Administration;

(ii) the local department of social services;

(iii) the State Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services;

(iv) the State Division of Parole and Probation;

(v) the detention center for the local jurisdiction in which the petition is filed;

(vi) the records of the juvenile court for the jurisdiction in which the petition is filed;

(vii) a particular social services agency or detention facility, if the local department is aware that the parent has received benefits from that social services agency, or has been confined in that detention facility, within the 9 months preceding the filing of the petition; and

(viii) each of the following individuals that the petitioner is able to locate and contact:

1. the other parent of the child;
2. known members of the parent's immediate family; and
3. the parent's current or last known employer.

(2) (i) The inquiry shall be considered sufficient if made by searching the computer files of an identified agency or by making an inquiry to the agency or person by regular mail.
