

In subsections (g) and (h)(2) of this section, the defined term "child respondent" is added to clarify that these provisions apply to children in juvenile court.

Also in subsections (g) and (h)(2) of this section, the term "unit" is substituted for the former terms "department" and "facility" to conform to the terminology used in revised articles of the Code. See General Revisor's Note to article.

In the introductory language of subsection (h) of this section, the former phrase "[a]t any time" is deleted as surplusage.

In subsection (h)(2) of this section, the former reference to the department or facility "specified in the commitment order" is deleted as surplusage.

11-107. DEFINITIONS.

(A) IN GENERAL.

IN PART II OF THIS SUBTITLE THE FOLLOWING WORDS HAVE THE MEANINGS INDICATED.

REVISOR'S NOTE: This subsection formerly was Art. 27, § 855(a)(1).

The only changes are in style.

(B) CHARGED.

"CHARGED" MEANS TO BE THE SUBJECT OF AN INDICTMENT, AN INFORMATION, OR A PETITION ALLEGING A DELINQUENT ACT.

REVISOR'S NOTE: This subsection is new language derived without substantive change from former Art. 27, § 855(a)(4).

In this subsection, the term "charged" is defined to mean "to be the subject" of an indictment, information, or petition. This phrase is substituted for the former reference that defined "charged" to mean "the filing" of an indictment, information, or petition. This substitution is made to reflect that "charged" is used in Part II of this subtitle to describe a person who is accused in the charging document and not the act of filing the document.

The Criminal Procedure Article Review Committee notes, for consideration by the General Assembly, that charging documents in most District Court
