

(i) July 1, 1984, for a member employed by a participating employer on that day who had not elected Selection A (Additional member contributions) or Selection B (Limited cost-of-living adjustment);

(ii) the date of return to employment by a participating employer for a member who returned to active employment and had not elected Selection A (Additional member contributions) or Selection B (Limited cost-of-living adjustment); or

(iii) the date of election of Selection C (Combination formula) under § 22-219 or § 22-220 of this subtitle.

(b) For purposes of computing a member's allowance under this section:

(1) service credit, other than military service credit, received by an individual before the individual last became a member shall be treated as service credit as of the date the service was rendered; and

(2) military service credit, received by a member in accordance with Title 38 of this article, shall be determined as of the date the Board of Trustees verifies the military service credit.

(c) (1) From the effective date for application of this section, a member shall receive an allowance as provided in this subsection.

(2) For normal service retirement, the allowance is computed:

(i) for creditable service before the effective date, as provided by § 22-401 of this title; and

(ii) for creditable service on and after the effective date, as provided by § 23-401 of this article.

(3) For early service retirement, the allowance is computed:

(i) for creditable service before the effective date, as provided by § 22-402 of this title; and

(ii) for creditable service on and after the effective date, as provided by § 23-402 of this article, except that the reduction under that section may not exceed 42% of the normal service retirement allowance based on the creditable service on or after the effective date.

(4) For ordinary disability retirement, the allowance is computed on the greater of:

(i) the allowance computed as provided by § 29-106 of this article;
or

(ii) the allowance computed as provided by § 29-108 of this article.

(5) For accidental disability retirement the allowance is computed as provided by § 29-110 of this article.
