

REVISOR'S NOTE: This section is new language derived without substantive change from the first, third, and as it related to money as contraband, the second sentences of former Art. 27, § 264(a).

Throughout this section, the former references to "currency" and "cash" are deleted as included in the reference to "money".

In the introductory language of subsection (a) of this section, the former reference to contraband "of law as a gambling device or as a part of a gambling operation" is deleted as unnecessary in light of the reference to "contraband".

Also in the introductory language of subsection (a) of this section, the reference to a "law enforcement" officer is substituted for the narrow former reference to a "police" officer for clarity.

In subsection (a)(1) and (2) of this section, the references to "unlawfully" playing or operating and "unlawfully" betting are added to state explicitly what is merely implied in the reference to an "arrest".

In subsection (a)(2) of this section, the former reference to "wagering" is deleted as redundant in light of the reference to "betting".

In subsection (b)(1) of this section, the phrase "[f]or purposes of this subsection" is substituted for the former phrase "for purposes of this section" because the term "State authority" appears only in this subsection.

In subsection (b)(2)(i) of this section, the reference to a "municipal corporation" is substituted for the former reference to a "municipality" to conform to the terminology of Article 23A of the Code.

Also in subsection (b)(2)(i) of this section, the former reference to a "local" sheriff's department is deleted as redundant in light of the reference to "the local law enforcement unit".

Also in subsection (b)(2)(i) of this section, the reference to a local law enforcement "unit" is substituted for the former reference to "agency" to conform to the terminology used throughout this article. See General Revisor's Note to article.
