

reasonable person could conclude that there will be a significant adverse impact on the public health, safety, or welfare affecting residents of the county in unincorporated areas if such county legislation does not apply in all municipalities located in the county. The issues shall be decided by the court without a jury. In the event that the court reverses such finding, the legislation shall continue to apply in unincorporated areas of the county and the applicability of such county legislation in municipalities shall be governed by the provisions of subsection (a) of this section. The decision of the circuit court in any such proceeding shall be subject to further appeal to the Court of Special Appeals by the county or any municipality in the county.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of [paragraph] SUBSECTION (b)(3) of this section, county legislation enacted in accordance with the procedures and requirements thereof shall nevertheless be or become inapplicable in any municipality which has enacted or enacts municipal legislation that:

(1) Covers the same subject matter and furthers the same policies as the county legislation;

DRAFTER'S NOTE:

Error: Stylistic errors in Article 23A, § 2B(a), (b)(4), and (c).

Occurred: Ch. 398, Acts of 1983.

Article 27 - Crimes and Punishments

156C.

(a) This section does not apply in Frederick County and Calvert County if the Board of County Commissioners of Frederick County or Calvert County [adopt] ADOPTS regulations under Article 25, §§ 211A and 237 of the Code providing for the registration of alarm system contractors and alarm users and the issuance of civil citations and penalties for violations of the regulations.

DRAFTER'S NOTE:

Error: Grammatical error in Article 27, § 156C(a).

Occurred: Ch. 438, Acts of 2000.

230A.

(b) (1) A person who fraudulently obtains, attempts to obtain, or aids another person in fraudulently obtaining or attempting to obtain money, property, food stamps, or other assistance other than Medicaid to which the person is not entitled, under a social or nutritional program based on need, financed in whole or in part by the State of Maryland, and administered by the State or its political subdivisions is guilty of a misdemeanor. For purposes of this section, fraud shall include:

(i) Wilfully making a false statement or representation;

(ii) Wilfully failing to disclose a material change in household or financial condition; or