CHAPTER 75(House Bill 421)

AN ACT concerning

Board of Audiologists, Hearing Aid Dispensers, and Speech–Language Pathologists – Disciplinary Actions

FOR the purpose of authorizing the State Board of Audiologists, Hearing Aid Dispensers, and Speech–Language Pathologists to require an examination, under certain circumstances, of a licensed audiologist, hearing aid dispenser, or speech–language pathologist during an investigation against the licensee; clarifying privileges waived by a licensed audiologist, hearing aid dispenser, or speech–language pathologist in the State; establishing that a licensee's refusal to submit to an examination is prima facie evidence of certain findings under certain circumstances; clarifying language for certain disciplinary actions arising from unprofessional conduct; and generally relating to the State Board
