

(i) May not disclose to any person any information received by the Departments relating to a specific mental health and substance abuse screening or assessment conducted under this section that could identify the child who was the subject of the screening or assessment; and

(ii) May make public other information unless prohibited by law.

(5) The Secretary of Juvenile [Justice] SERVICES and the Secretary of Health and Mental Hygiene jointly shall adopt any regulation necessary to carry out this subsection.

(i) (1) If authorization to file a petition for a complaint which alleges a child is in need of supervision or if authorization to file a peace order request is denied, the person or agency that filed the complaint or caused it to be filed, within 15 days of personal notice of the denial to that person or agency or the mailing to the last known address, may submit the denial for review by the Department of Juvenile [Justice] SERVICES Area Director for the area in which the complaint was filed.

(2) The Department of Juvenile [Justice] SERVICES Area Director shall review the denial.

(3) If, within 15 days, the Department of Juvenile [Justice] SERVICES Area Director concludes that the court has jurisdiction and that judicial action is in the best interests of the public and the child, the Department of Juvenile [Justice] SERVICES Area Director may authorize the filing of a petition in writing.

3-8A-11.

(b) The use of the form prescribed by subsection (a) of this section does not preclude the Department of Juvenile [Justice] SERVICES from sending other information, in addition to this form, to explain the intake officer's decision and advise persons of their right to appeal the decision of the intake officer.

3-8A-15.

(e) (3) (i) If the court has not specifically prohibited community detention, the Department of Juvenile [Justice] SERVICES may release the child from detention into community detention and place the child in:

1. Shelter care; or
2. The custody of the child's parent, guardian, custodian, or other person able to provide supervision and care for the child and to return the child to court when required.

(ii) If a child who has been released by the Department of Juvenile [Justice] SERVICES or the court into community detention violates the conditions of community detention, and it is necessary to protect the child or others, an intake officer may authorize the detention of the child.

(iii) The Department of Juvenile [Justice] SERVICES shall promptly notify the court of:
