

under 42 U.S.C. § 666(a)(17) is $500 or more in arrears of a child support obligation and has not paid child support for more than 60 days, the Administration may institute an action to attach and seize the amount of the arrearage in one or more of the accounts of the obligor with a financial institution to satisfy the amount of arrearage owed by the obligor.

(2) Before attaching and seizing the obligor's accounts, the Administration shall send a notice to the obligor at the obligor's last known address advising the obligor of the enforcement actions that may be taken, including that the obligor's accounts may be subject to garnishment for payment of a child support arrearage.

(b) (1) If the Administration institutes an action against an obligor under subsection (a) of this section, the Administration shall send a notice to the financial institution in which one or more of the obligor's accounts are located, by certified mail, return receipt requested, or by other method acceptable to the financial institution, at the address designated for this purpose by the financial institution or, if no address has been designated, to the principal office of the financial institution.

(2) The notice shall contain the following information, to the extent known by the Administration:

- (i) the address of the Administration;
- (ii) the telephone number, address, and name of a contact person at the Administration;
- (iii) the name and Social Security number or other taxpayer identification number of the obligor;
- (iv) the address of the obligor;
- (v) for each account of the obligor, the obligor's account number and known balance with the financial institution;
- (vi) the amount of arrearage that the financial institution shall seize and attach from one or more of the accounts of the obligor; and
- (vii) a statement instructing the financial institution to immediately attach and seize the amount of arrearage stated in item (vi) of this paragraph from one or more of the accounts of the obligor and, upon subsequent notice by the Administration, to forward the amount to the Administration.

(c) (1) On receipt of the notice under subsection (b) of this section, the financial institution shall promptly seize and attach from one or more of the accounts identified in the Administration's notice to the financial institution an aggregate amount equal to the lesser of the amounts in all accounts or the amount stated in the notice.
