

owed by the obligor from one or more of the accounts of the obligor and, upon subsequent notice by the Administration, to forward the amount to the Administration; and

(ix) a statement informing the obligor that, unless a timely challenge is made to the Administration by the obligor or an account holder of interest under subsection [(g)] (H) of this section, the Administration shall notify the financial institution to forward the amount seized and attached by the financial institution to the Administration.

[(e)] (F) If a timely challenge is not made by the obligor or an account holder of interest under subsection [(g)] (H) of this section, the Administration shall send a notice to the financial institution, in the manner specified in subsection [(b)] (C) of this section, directing the institution to forward the amount seized and attached by the financial institution to the Administration.

[(f)] (G) The Administration shall apply the amount seized and forwarded by the financial institution to the obligor's child support arrears. If the obligor has more than one child support case with arrears, the Administration shall allocate the amount received among one or more of the obligor's cases, as determined appropriate by the Administration.

[(g)] (H) (1) An obligor or an account holder of interest may challenge the actions of the Administration under this section by:

- (i) filing a request for an investigation with the Administration; or
- (ii) filing a motion with the circuit court.

(2) A challenge under paragraph (1)(i) of this subsection shall:

- (i) be in writing;
- (ii) be received by the Administration within 30 days from the date of the notice under subsection [(d)] (E) of this section;

(iii) be sent to the contact person identified in the notice sent to the obligor under subsection [(d)] (E) of this section; and

- (iv) specify, in detail, the reasons for the challenge.

(3) An obligor or account holder of interest may not challenge the actions of the Administration on issues related to visitation, custody, or other matters not related to an account.

(4) An obligor or an account holder of interest may challenge the actions of the Administration based on an exemption in § 11-504 or § 11-603 of the Courts Article or for any other good cause.

[(h)] (I) (1) Upon receipt of a challenge under subsection [(g)] (H) of this section, the Administration shall review the challenge in accordance with this subsection.
