

(2) The Administration may withdraw the notice to attach accounts by sending notice to the financial institution, in the manner specified in subsection [(b)] (C) of this section, directing the financial institution to release the attachment on the account.

(n) If a determination is made by the Administration or by the Office of Administrative Hearings that the account or accounts of the obligor should not have been held, the Administration shall notify the financial institution, in the manner specified in subsection [(b)] (C) of this section, to release the amount seized and attached by the financial institution.

(o) (1) A financial institution that complies with a request or notice from the Administration made under this section is not liable under State law to any person for:

(1) any disclosure of information to the Administration under this section;

(2) seizing and attaching any amounts from an account, sending any amount seized and attached by the financial institution to the Administration, or releasing all or a part of the amount seized and attached by the financial institution; or

(3) any other action taken in good faith to comply with the requirements of this section.

(2) AN INSTITUTION-AFFILIATED PARTY, AS DEFINED IN § 10-108.2(A)(4)(II) AND (V) OF THIS SUBTITLE, IS IMMUNE FROM ANY CIVIL LIABILITY OR CRIMINAL PENALTY FOR ANY ACTION TAKEN UNDER THIS SECTION.

(p) (1) Notwithstanding any other statutory provisions or rules of court that provide for the execution, attachment, garnishment, or levy against an account, and subject to paragraph (2) of this subsection, the Administration may utilize the procedures established in this section exclusively to collect delinquent child support.

(2) This section may not be construed to prohibit the Administration from collecting delinquent child support in any other manner authorized by law.

(a) If the Administration institutes an action under [§ 10-108.3(a)] § 10-108.3(B) of this subtitle and no obligor has any ownership interest in a seized account at the time the Administration institutes the action, the Administration shall reimburse the account holders of interest for fees incurred as a result of instituting the action, including:

(1) fees assessed by the financial institution as a result of the Administration's action;

(2) fees assessed by the financial institution for insufficient funds;

(3) fees assessed by merchants for dishonored checks; and
