

a permit "from" the Secretary to conform to the terminology used in § 5-106 of this subtitle concerning the issuance of dealer's licenses.

In the introductory language of subsection (g)(3) of this section, the requirement that the Secretary "shall disapprove" an application is added to state expressly that which only was implied in the former law, i.e., the Secretary must disapprove an application if any of the stated conditions exist.

Subsection (g)(3)(i) of this section is revised in the active voice to state expressly that which only was implied in the former law, i.e., the applicant is held responsible for supplying false information or making a false statement.

In subsection (g)(4) of this section, the clause "[i]f the Secretary disapproves an application for a temporary transfer permit" is added to state expressly that which only was implied in the former law, i.e., the Secretary must send a notice of disapproval if the Secretary disapproves an application.

In subsection (h)(2) of this section, the reference to a display "of a regulated firearm" is added for clarity.

In subsection (i)(2) of this section, the reference to a person "obtain[ing] a dealer's license under § 5-107 of this subtitle" is substituted for the former reference to the requirement that the person "comply with § 443 of this article" for clarity.

In subsection (j) of this section, the reference to "§§ 5-103, 5-104, 5-117 through 5-129, and 5-136 of this subtitle" is substituted for the former reference to "§§ 442 and 442A of this article". These revised sections contain all of the provisions of former Art. 27, §§ 442 and 442A.
