Annotated Code of Maryland

(2001 Volume and 2002 Supplement)

SECTION 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND, That the Laws of Maryland read as follows:

Article – Criminal Procedure

~~6-220.~~ 6-219.

(a) [(1)] In this section, “custodial confinement” means:

[(i)] (1) home detention;

[(ii)] (2) a corrections options program established under law which requires the individual to participate in home detention, inpatient treatment, or other similar program involving terms and conditions that constitute the equivalent of confinement; or

[(iii)] (3) inpatient drug or alcohol treatment.

[(2) “Custodial confinement” does not include imprisonment.]

(b) Subject to subsection (c) of this section, a court:

(1) may suspend a sentence generally or for a definite time;

(2) may pass orders and impose terms as to costs, recognizance for appearance, or matters relating to the residence or conduct of the defendant who is convicted as may be deemed proper;
