

(3) [If the defendant who is convicted is under 18 years of age,] may order confinement in any care or custody as may be deemed proper; or

(4) may order a person to a term of custodial confinement as a condition of a suspended sentence.

(d) [(1) In Calvert County, Charles County, and St. Mary's County, the] THE court may impose a sentence of imprisonment as a condition of probation.

(2) In Prince George's County, the court on conviction may sentence a defendant to the local correctional facility, if:

[(i)] (1) the sentence is to be performed during any 48-hour period in a 7-day period, with each period of confinement to be not less than 2 days of the sentence imposed;

(ii) the crime leading to the conviction allows confinement in the local correctional facility; and

(iii) the total sentence does not exceed 30 2-day periods of confinement.

[(e)] (F) If an individual violates the terms of probation, any time served by the individual in custodial confinement shall be credited against any sentence of incarceration imposed by the court.

6-220.

(a) [(1)] In this section, "custodial confinement" means:

[(i)] (1) home detention;

(ii) a corrections options program established under law which requires the individual to participate in home detention, inpatient treatment, or other similar program involving terms and conditions that constitute the equivalent of confinement; or

(iii) inpatient drug or alcohol treatment.

[(2) "Custodial confinement" does not include imprisonment.]

(b) (1) When a defendant pleads guilty or nolo contendere or is found guilty of a crime, a court may stay the entering of judgment, defer further proceedings, and place the defendant on probation subject to reasonable conditions if:

(i) the court finds that the best interests of the defendant and the public welfare would be served; and

(ii) the defendant gives written consent after determination of guilt or acceptance of a nolo contendere plea.

(2) Subject to paragraphs (3) and (4) of this subsection, the conditions may include an order that the defendant:
