

[15-317.

(a) The Board may issue a temporary license to practice land surveying to any applicant who:

- (1) is licensed to practice land surveying in another state;
- (2) is not a resident of this State;
- (3) does not have a place of business in this State;
- (4) submits to the Board an application on the form that the Board provides; and
- (5) pays to the Board an application fee of $25.

(b) The purpose of a temporary license is to allow an individual to practice land surveying while the individual applies for a license to practice land surveying and the Board considers that application.

(c) (1) Unless the holder of a temporary license applies, in accordance with § 15-306 of this subtitle, for a license to practice land surveying within 30 days after the issuance of the temporary license, it expires 30 days after the date of issuance.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3) of this subsection, if the holder of a temporary license applies for a license to practice land surveying, the temporary license expires on the date that the Board acts on the application.

(3) In no event is a temporary license effective for more than 1 year from the date of its issuance.

(d) If a temporary license holder's license from the other state expires or is suspended or revoked, the temporary license terminates automatically and immediately.]
