CHAPTER 473

(House Bill 1130)

AN ACT concerning

Washington County - Gaming Commission - Tip Jar Gaming

FOR the purpose of prohibiting the Washington County Gaming Commission from distributing in any year to each applicant per application more than a certain amount of money deposited in a certain fund containing gross profits from tip jar gaming; prohibiting the Commission from distributing more than a certain amount of money in the fund for each distribution, if the Commission makes two distributions during a year; repealing a certain reporting requirement imposed on the Commission; repealing on a certain date limits on the distribution by the Commission of certain money to certain persons; repealing and altering certain termination provisions relating to a prohibition against charging a fee for a gaming sticker to certain persons and to certain percentages of certain money distributed to certain persons; and generally relating to the Washington County Gaming Commission.

BY repealing and reenacting, with amendments,
