

GENERAL REVISOR'S NOTE TO SUBTITLE:

In revising the various articles of the Annotated Code, it was the usual practice of the former Commission to Revise the Annotated Code and article review committees to make very few, if any, changes to compacts. The Public Safety Article Review Committee has made no changes to the text of the Emergency Management Assistance Compact, which comprises § 14-702 of this subtitle. To conform to current code revision drafting conventions, catchlines have been added to sections and subsections of sections of this subtitle. These catchlines, however, are not law and the addition of catchlines to this subtitle does not affect the substance of the Compact.
