

Former Art. 27, § 268D and part of § 268B, which prohibited hunting on the land of another without permission in Anne Arundel County, Caroline County, and Harford County, are revised in § 10-411 of the Natural Resources Article.

Former Art. 38A, § 34F, which authorized forfeiture of vehicles, vessels, and aircraft used or employed during violation of the explosives laws, is revised in § 13-301 of the Criminal Procedure Article.

The Public Safety Article Review Committee considered several provisions contained in the public safety laws to be more suitable for transfer to other articles or for repeal than for revision in the Public Safety Article.

Former Art. 88B, §§ 64 through 69, the State Aid for Police Protection Fund, is transferred to Article 41, §§ 4-401 through 4-406 of the Code.

Former Art. 41, § 4-906, which authorized citations for offenses on publicly owned watershed property, is transferred to § 8-2003 of the Natural Resources Article.

Former Art. 89, § 64, which prohibited smoking tobacco products in public elevators and provided a civil penalty, is transferred to § 24-212 of the Health - General Article.

Former Art. 89, § 2B, which provided for the termination of certain provisions relating to the regulation of labor and industry, is repealed as duplicative of § 2-109 of the Labor and Employment Article.

A few provisions allocated to the Public Safety Article are transferred to the Session Laws because of limited and diminishing applicability or limited duration. In addition, some apparently obsolete provisions allocated to the Public Safety Article are transferred to the Session Laws for historical purposes or to avoid any inadvertent substantive effect their repeal might have.

In some instances, the staff of the Department of Legislative Services may create "Special Revisor's Notes" to reflect the substantive effect of legislation enacted during the 2003 Session on some provisions of this article.

SECTION 3. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That the Laws of Maryland read as follows:
