

(1) obtain a gaming sticker from the agency; and

(2) affix the gaming sticker to the tip jar packet in the manner the county commissioners require.

[(c) A person with a wholesaler's license may not charge a fee for a gaming sticker to a volunteer fire company or a volunteer rescue company.]

REVISOR'S NOTE: This section is new language derived without substantive change from former Art. 27, § 255C(o), as abrogated under Chapter 479, § 4 of the Acts of the General Assembly of 2000.

Former subsection (c), which prohibited a person with a wholesaler's license from charging a fee to a volunteer fire company or a volunteer rescue company, is abrogated.

13-2435.

(a) In this section, "gross profits" means the total proceeds from the operation of a tip jar less the amount of money winnings or value of prizes distributed.

(b) There is a Washington County Gaming Fund.

(c) (1) The county commissioners shall establish:

(i) the method and time of deposits to the fund; and

(ii) other procedures necessary to carry out subsections (d) and (e) of this section.

(2) In accordance with a written agreement between the county commissioners and the gaming commission, the gaming commission may use money from the fund to reimburse the county commissioners for the costs to the county for administering Part III of this subtitle.

(d) (1) This subsection only applies to a person who qualifies for a tip jar license under § 13-2420(b)(7), (8), or (9) of this subtitle.

(2) Subject to paragraphs (3) and (4) of this subsection, a person subject to this subsection shall deposit with a financial institution designated by the gaming commission, to the credit of the fund, the gross profits from each tip jar that the person operates.

(3) The gross profits from a tip jar may not exceed $250.

(4) To offset the costs of operating a tip jar, a person with a tip jar license may retain the lesser of $45 or 50% of the gross profits from each tip jar game.

(e) (1) This subsection only applies to a person who qualifies for a tip jar license under § 13-2420(b)(1) through (6) of this subtitle.
