

(II) IF PAYMENT OF THE FINE IS DEFAULTED, IMPRISONMENT NOT EXCEEDING 60 DAYS.

REVISOR'S NOTE: Chapter 26, Acts of 2002, which enacted the Criminal Law Article, also added this section, which is new language derived without substantive change from former Art. 27, §§ 181, 182, 183, and 189.

In subsection (a) of this section, the reference to "impersonate" a person is substituted for the former archaic reference to "personate" a person for clarity.

As to the deletion of the references to a "badge[, distinctive ribbons, or membership rosette or button]", in subsection (b) of this section, see General Revisor's Note to subtitle.

In subsection (b) of this section and throughout this section, the references to using and wearing an "insignia" are substituted for the former references to using and wearing "the same" for clarity.

In subsections (b)(1), (c)(1), and (d)(1) of this section, the former references to "regulations" of a society, etc., are deleted as implicit in the references to the "rules" of a society, etc.

In subsection (b) of this section, the introductory phrase "[s]ubject to paragraph (2) of this subsection" is added for clarity.

Also in subsection (b) of this section, the former references to "lodges" and "societies" are deleted in light of Art. 1, § 8, which provides that the singular generally includes the plural.

Also in subsection (b) of this section, the former reference to a person entitled to wear a symbolic representation "[under subsection (a) of] this section" is deleted because subsection (a) of this section is a prohibition, not an authorizing or entitling statute.

In subsections (c)(2) and (d)(2) of this section, the references to imprisonment "if payment of the fine is defaulted" are substituted for the former references to imprisonment if "in default of payment" for clarity.

Also in subsections (c)(2) and (d)(2) of this section, the references to "[a] person who violates this subsection" are added for clarity and consistency.

As to the deletion of the reference in subsection (c) of this section to a "uniform or button ... or the official decorations" of an organization, see General Revisor's Note to subtitle.

In subsection (c) of this section, the former reference to the Disabled American Veterans "of the World War" is deleted to reflect the current name of that organization.

Also in subsection (c) of this section, the former reference to the "United Spanish War Veterans" is deleted because the organization no longer exists.
