

have 45 days to review and comment upon the evaluations.

Further provided that $250,000 of the general fund appropriation may not be expended until the Governor's Office of Crime Control and Prevention has submitted to the budget committees the outcome analysis of Break the Cycle which is being performed by the Urban Institute. This analysis should include a comparison of recidivism rates of offenders in the Break the Cycle program with demographically similar offenders who live in other counties. The budget committees shall have 45 days to review and comment upon the analysis.

Further provided that $250,000 of this general fund appropriation may not be expended until the Governor's Office of Crime Control and Prevention (GOCCP) has submitted, on or before January 1, 2003, a report setting forth analysis and recommendations regarding the reorganization of victim services to the House Appropriations and Judiciary Committees and the Senate Budget and Taxation and Judicial Proceedings Committees. This report shall also include comments and recommendations from GOCCP's Victim Services Assessment Program's State Board of Victims Services and Task Force to Examine Crime Victims' Rights. The budget committees shall have 45 days to review and comment.

Further provided that $250,000 of the general fund appropriation may not be expended until the Governor's Office of Crime Control and Prevention has submitted to the budget committees a status report of the Maryland Substance Abuse Initiative which includes:

- (1) a description of the comprehensive strategy of the initiative;