

and universities by $3,000,000 in fiscal 2004, if funds are available.

General Fund Appropriation, provided that $400,000 of this appropriation designated for historically black colleges' and universities (HBCUs) may only be expended to facilitate the purchase and/or loan of personal computers for students who could not otherwise afford them at Morgan State University. The equitable distribution of remaining enhancement funds shall not consider the aforementioned grant to Morgan State University.

Further provided that $3,000,000 in general funds designated to enhance the State's four public historically black institutions may not be expended until the Maryland Higher Education Commission submits a report to the budget committees outlining how the funds will be spent. The budget committees shall have 45 days to review and comment on the report
