

REVISOR'S NOTE: This section is new language derived without substantive change from former Art. 27, § 233E.

In subsection (a) of this section, the reference to advertising "in a manner" intended to encourage purchasing is added for clarity in light of the restatement of the definition of "offer for sale" as a verb phrase.

Also in subsection (a) of this section, the former reference to "printed or media" advertising is deleted as surplusage.

Also in subsection (a) of this section, the Criminal Law Article Review Committee notes, for the consideration of the General Assembly, that an "attempt" that is intended to encourage the purchase of a blank identification card appears to be redundant of "solicit[ing]" the same, and is in the nature of an attempt to attempt a sale.

In subsection (e) of this section, the former reference to seeking injunction "by application to a court of competent jurisdiction" is deleted as implicit.

Also in subsection (e) of this section, the reference to "an injunction to stop" is substituted for the former reference to "petition to enjoin" for consistency within this article.

Also in subsection (e) of this section, the former reference to the "City of Baltimore" is deleted as included in the defined term "county".

Defined terms: "County" § 1-101
"Person" § 1-101
