

the second sentence of former Art. 27, § 251A(b).

Subsection (e)(2) of this section is standard language substituted for the first, second, and third phrases of the second sentence of former Art. 27, § 251A(b), which provided for the terms of the initial members of the board and were obsolete. This substitution is not intended to alter the term of any member of the board. See § 8 of Ch. 26, Acts of 2002. Accordingly, in subsection (e)(1) of this section, the specific reference to "June 1" is added to conform to the practice of the board. The terms of the members serving on October 1, 2002, end as follows: (1) one in 2003; (2) one in 2005; and (3) one in 2007.

Subsection (e)(3) of this section is new language derived without substantive change from the third sentence of former Art. 27, § 251A(b).

In subsection (b) of this section, the reference to the board "consist[ing] of three members appointed by the Governor" is substituted for the former requirement that "[t]he Governor shall appoint ... three persons to be members of the" board to conform to similar provisions in other revised articles of the Code.

In the introductory language of subsection (c) of this section, the reference to each "member of" the board is substituted for the former reference to each "person appointed to" the board for consistency within this section.

In the introductory language of subsection (d)(1) of this section, the phrase "is entitled to" is substituted for the former phrase "shall be paid" to conform to similar provisions in other revised articles of the Code.

In subsection (d)(2) of this section, the reference to administrative "expenses" is substituted for the former reference to administrative "costs" for accuracy.

In subsection (e)(3) of this section, the reference to any vacancy "occurring during the term of an appointed member" is added for clarity and to conform to similar provisions in other revised articles of the Code.

Also in subsection (e)(3) of this section, the former reference to filling a vacancy "for any reason" is deleted in light of the reference to filling "any" vacancy.

The Criminal Law Article Review Committee notes, for the consideration of the General Assembly, that in subsection (d)(2) of this section, it is unclear whether the term "proceeds" received by the county commissioners refers only to proceeds received under § 13-2614 of this subtitle, or also to license fees received under § 13-2610(c) of this subtitle. If the latter is intended, another term such as "amounts" may be preferred, perhaps with an explicit cross-reference to all covered sources of funds.
