

(f) A good faith reliance on a court order is a complete defense to a civil or criminal action brought under this section.

(g) (1) An individual who was observed through the use of a camera in violation of this section has a civil cause of action against any person who placed or procured another to place the camera on the real property.

(2) In an action under this subsection, the court may award damages and reasonable attorney's fees.

(h) This section does not affect any legal or equitable right or remedy otherwise provided by law.

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect October 1, 2004.

Approved May 11, 2004.

CHAPTER 362

(House Bill 624)

AN ACT concerning

Criminal Procedure - Expungement - Automatic Notice to Defendant

FOR the purpose of ~~prohibiting a court from assessing costs against a certain defendant in connection with an expungement under certain circumstances; altering a provision of law so as to make certain procedures relating to expungement of certain records applicable only to certain arrests, detentions, or confinements occurring before a certain date; establishing that for certain arrests, detentions, or confinements occurring on or after a certain date, the person arrested, detained, or confined is entitled to expungement of certain police records; requiring a certain law enforcement unit to take certain actions within a certain amount of time after release of a certain person entitled to expungement of a certain police record; requiring certain entities to take certain actions within a certain amount of time after receipt of a certain notice of expungement; authorizing a certain person to apply for a certain order of expungement under certain circumstances; altering a provision of law so as to make certain procedures relating to expungement of certain records applicable only to certain charges filed before a certain date; establishing that for certain charges filed on or after a certain date, the person charged is entitled to expungement of certain records under certain circumstances; requiring a court to pass an order requiring the expungement of certain records under certain circumstances; requiring a certain custodian of records to take certain actions within a certain amount of time after a court enters an order of expungement; altering a provision of law so as to make certain procedures relating to expungement of certain juvenile records applicable only to certain charges filed before a certain date; establishing that for certain charges filed on or after a~~