

- B. Annual reports; bonding; appeals. To conserve such relief money from waste, the County Commissioners are hereby given plenary administrative power over the same by appropriate orders. Such personal representative shall report annually, in detail, to the County Commissioners the status of the Relief Fund in his hands, but shall not be required to account for same in the Orphans' Court. The County Commissioners shall require such personal representative to give bond to the State of Maryland for the safe custody of the Relief Fund in his hands in the sum of two thousand dollars ($2,000.) and may be allowed commissions on the principal thereof not exceeding two percent (2%) for the first year and five percent (5%) yearly thereafter on the income in payment for his services. He shall deposit said relief money not otherwise invested in such bank as the County Commissioners may direct and shall only draw thereon in accordance with orders of such Commissioners. From any order passed by said County Commissioners under this section, the personal representative or any person claiming to be a dependent may appeal within sixty (60) days to the Circuit Court of such county, whereupon such Circuit Court shall have jurisdiction to determine the issues of fact and law raised by such appeal and may pass such rules as may be judged necessary to expedite and effectuate the determination of such issues, in which appeals the County Commissioners shall be party defendant.]

[66-12.

- A. Temporary remittance of tax. When the assessments imposed and collected by the Treasurer of Allegany County shall amount to a surplus of thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000.) and when the assessments imposed and collected by the Treasurer of Garrett County shall amount to a surplus of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000.) over and above the pending and accrued claims on the same under this Article, such Treasurers shall report the fact to the County Commissioners of their respective county, whereupon said Board of County Commissioners is hereby empowered and directed to remit temporarily the taxes hereby imposed from month to month as long as, and no longer, such surplus shall exceed thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000.) in Allegany County and fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000.) in Garrett County, and when it shall be reduced to said sums or under as mentioned above, said tax shall become again payable as provided by this Article. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer of his respective county to invest, under the orders of the County Commissioners, any surplus above the sum of two thousand dollars ($2,000.) in his hands in such public bonds as said Commissioners may direct and to credit such Fund with the interest derived therefrom.
- B. Transfer of Fund and records. Upon the retirement from office or any disqualification to act of such Treasurer, the entire Fund, including such bonds and the books and papers pertaining to such Fund, shall be delivered by such Treasurer to his successor in office, who shall receipt for the same.]
