

- (3) confidential financial information; or
- (4) confidential geological or geophysical information.

(e) Subject to § 21-504 of the State Personnel and Pensions Article, a custodian shall deny inspection of the part of a public record that contains the home address or telephone number of an employee of a unit or instrumentality of the State or of a political subdivision unless:

- (1) the employee gives permission for the inspection; or
- (2) the unit or instrumentality that employs the individual determines that inspection is needed to protect the public interest.

(f) (1) This subsection does not apply to the salary of a public employee.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3) of this subsection, a custodian shall deny inspection of the part of a public record that contains information about the finances of an individual, including assets, income, liabilities, net worth, bank balances, financial history or activities, or creditworthiness.

(3) A custodian shall permit inspection by the person in interest.

(g) A custodian shall deny inspection of the part of a public record that contains information about the security of an information system.

(h) (1) Subject to paragraphs (2) through (4) of this subsection, a custodian shall deny inspection of the part of a public record that contains information about the licensing of an individual in an occupation or profession.

(2) A custodian shall permit inspection of the part of a public record that gives:

- (i) the name of the licensee;
- (ii) the business address of the licensee or, if the business address is not available, the home address;
- (iii) the business telephone number of the licensee;
- (iv) the educational and occupational background of the licensee;
- (v) the professional qualifications of the licensee;
- (vi) any orders and findings that result from formal disciplinary actions; and

(vii) any evidence that has been provided to the custodian to meet the requirements of a statute as to financial responsibility.

(3) A custodian may permit inspection of other information about a licensee if:

- (i) the custodian finds a compelling public purpose; and
