

(ii) the rules or regulations of the official custodian permit the inspection.

(4) Except as otherwise provided by this subsection or other law, a custodian shall permit inspection by the person in interest.

(5) A custodian who sells lists of licensees shall omit from the lists the name of any licensee, on written request of the licensee.

(i) A custodian shall deny inspection of the part of a public record that contains information, generated by the bid analysis management system, concerning an investigation based on a transportation contractor's suspected collusive or anticompetitive activity submitted to the Department by:

- (1) the United States Department of Transportation; or
- (2) another state.

(j) (1) Subject to paragraphs (2) through (5) of this subsection, a custodian shall deny inspection of the part of a public record that contains information about the application and commission of a person as a notary public.

(2) A custodian shall permit inspection of the part of a public record that gives:

- (i) the name of the notary public;
- (ii) the home address of the notary public;
- (iii) the home and business telephone numbers of the notary public;
- (iv) the issue and expiration dates of the notary public's commission;
- (v) the date the person took the oath of office as a notary public; or
- (vi) the signature of the notary public.

(3) A custodian may permit inspection of other information about a notary public if the custodian finds a compelling public purpose.

(4) A custodian may deny inspection of a record by a notary public or any other person in interest only to the extent that the inspection could:

- (i) interfere with a valid and proper law enforcement proceeding;
- (ii) deprive another person of a right to a fair trial or an impartial adjudication;
- (iii) constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy;
- (iv) disclose the identity of a confidential source;
- (v) disclose an investigative technique or procedure;
