

Throughout this section, former references to an “adult or minor parent” applicant or recipient are deleted as redundant.

In subsection (b)(1)(i) of this section, the former reference to the “first redetermination after July 1, 1997” is deleted as obsolete.

In subsection (b)(1)(ii) of this section, the reference to the FIP “case manager” is substituted for the former reference to the FIP “staff” for clarity and consistency throughout this section.

In subsection (b)(2) of this section, the former reference to “assist[ing] in determining whether an adult or minor parent applicant or recipient has a need for substance abuse treatment” is deleted for brevity.

In subsection (c)(1)(iii) of this section, the reference to “substance abuse” treatment is substituted for the former reference to “alcohol and drug” treatment for consistency throughout this section.

In subsection (c)(2) of this section, the former requirement that an addictions specialist forward consent for the release of confidential treatment information to a substance abuse treatment provider is deleted as redundant of subsection (c)(1) of this section.

In subsection (d)(2) of this section, the reference to “work activity requirements” is substituted for the former reference to “work requirements” for clarity and consistency throughout this subtitle.

In the introductory language of subsections (f) and (g) of this section, the references to “the FIP case manager” receiving notice are added for clarity.

In subsection (g)(1) of this section, the reference to “identify[ing] the recipient who” is not in compliance is added for clarity.

In subsection (g)(3)(i) of this section, the reference to that increment in cash benefits “attributable to the noncompliant recipient” is substituted for the former reference to that increment in cash benefits “that included the adult recipient” for clarity.

In subsections (g)(3)(ii) and (h)(1) and (2) of this section, the references to “a compliant adult recipient” are added to conform to current practice.

In subsections (f)(1)(ii) and (g)(4) of this section, the references to notifying applicants and recipients of the “right to appeal and the procedures for filing an appeal” are added to conform to current practice.

In subsection (h)(2) of this section, the reference to “temporary cash assistance benefits payments” is substituted for the former reference to “payments” for clarity.
