Annotated Code of Maryland
(2004 Replacement Volume and 2006 Supplement)

Preamble

WHEREAS, The federal government recently completed the Base Realignment and Closure (BRAC) review process, determining which military operations would be consolidated throughout the country; and

WHEREAS, The State will receive an estimated 40,000 to 60,000 new civilian and military jobs at and around Aberdeen Proving Ground in Harford County and Fort Meade in Anne Arundel County; and

WHEREAS, The State is expected to receive an estimated 25,000 new households as a result of the BRAC process; and

WHEREAS, This is an extraordinary economic development opportunity for the region and the State; and

WHEREAS, Many policy issues, such as land use and transportation decisions, will need to be addressed regionally and statewide; and

WHEREAS, Many concerns have already been raised regarding housing availability, transportation infrastructure, educational opportunities, and water and sewer infrastructure; and

WHEREAS, It is vital that the State legislature implement programs and processes to expedite and accelerate planning and development so that the region and the State are prepared to receive the influx of jobs and personnel associated with BRAC; now, therefore,
