

to the same; also one single upright saw mill, gate Ratchet wheel and shafting belonging to the same, and also the fixtures including the Carriage and ways fixed to the said saw forty five feet long; one Crank wheel shaft and pulley belonging to the same; one belt fourteen inches wide and about thirty feet long belonging to the gang mill, one belt twelve inches wide and about thirty feet long belonging to the aforesaid single upright saw; one belt belonging to the log wheel, about thirty feet long, one large Cast Iron Cog wheel about seven feet in diameter, with the pinions shafting and fixtures, which is used for hauling up logs in the mill; one line of wrought iron shafting about sixteen feet long, two and one half inches in diameter, with three pulleys one the same for driving Circular Saws; one Circular Saw, mandrel frame and fixtures to the same, the said saw being thirty inches in diameter; one Circular Saw for sawing laths and the fixtures thereto belonging; one Chain about one hundred and fifty feet long, used for hauling logs in the mill, one Chain about eighty feet long, used for hoisting lumber off the Carriages, one Chain about seventy five feet long used for a Crane; one set of Crane irons and fixtures; two Rail Road Cars, one used for hauling up logs in the mill, and the other for taking the lumber out of the mill; four Crow bars, two Cant hooks, one monkey wrench and one Key wrench, together with all and singular other the articles and fixtures to the said mill belonging or appertaining, it being the same engine, boilers and machinery which were built by Neal and Matthews, machinists of Bush Hill, Philadelphia and put up by Nathan Cowman, millwright of Philadelphia, for one John Still in the year eighteen hundred and forty seven, of Housville in Queen Anne's County and State of Maryland aforesaid To Have and To Hold, the above described Steam Saw mill and all the above mentioned fixtures, articles and appurtenances thereunto, belonging unto him the said Benjamin Still his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, to his and their own proper use and behoof, and to and for no other use intent or purpose whatsoever, And whereas the said David D. Barber is about to remove the said saw mill and all the fixtures thereunto belonging to "near Vienna Dorchester County" in the State of Maryland for the purpose of putting up the same and sawing lumber, I do hereby give and grant unto the said Benjamin Still, his Executors, administrators and assigns, and to his and their agents or agents appointed for that purpose to enter upon the premises whereupon the said mill may be erected and to take possession of, and remove the same together with all the fixtures thereto belonging and dispose of the same in such manner as to him or them may seeme proper without the hindrance, suit or molestation of me the said Barber, my agents, employees or any other person or persons. Claiming by, from or under me the said David D. Barber, if and whenever either of the aforesaid notes shall not be paid at its maturity

In testimony whereof I the said David D. Barber have hereunto set my hand and seal this nineteenth day of January in the year Eighteen hundred and fifty four

Signed Sealed and delivered

David D. Barber (seal)

in presence of

E. Carpenter

William Fox jr.

Rememoval the of Pennsylvania

City of Philadelphia

Be it Known that on the nineteenth day of January Anno Domini 1854 Before me Edward Carpenter a Commissioner of the State of Maryland, named appointed and Commissioned by the Governor and Confirmed by the Senate thereof