Be it remembered and it is hereby Certified, that the following Indenture was received and recorded on the 1st day of June 1857, to wit:

In Dorchester County Orphan's Court, Williamina Jackson a negro girl of the age of six years on the first day of June, eighteen hundred and fifty seven, comes into Court; and it being represented to the Court that the said Williamina Jackson, is not at service or learning a trade or employed in the service of her parents, and that she is without means sufficient for her maintenance or support; and the Court being satisfied that said representation is true; and believing also that it would greatly conduce to the good of the said child, that she should be put to learn some trade or useful business. The said Williamina Jackson is therefore on this first day of June, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and fifty seven, bound as an apprentice by John W. Hodson, and L. H. Rosse two Justices of the Orphan's Court for Dorchester County, unto Daniel Hubbard, until she the said Williamina Jackson, shall arrive to the age of sixteen years: And the said Daniel Hubbard, being here present in Court, agrees to take the said Williamina Jackson as an apprentice, until she shall arrive to the said age: And the said Daniel Hubbard, doth also on his part acknowledge himself bound, and by these presents doth contract, promise, and agree, to teach the said apprentice, or cause her to be taught plain sewing and housework, and to supply her with suitable clothing and maintenance during her apprenticeship; and when free to give her the sum of two Dollars in Cash, and two suits of clothing: And the said Daniel Hubbard, doth further contract, promise and agree to give the said apprentice, when free, the sum of Fifteen Dollars in Cash, in lieu of education in addition to the freedom dues above required to be given. — In Witness Whereof, we hereunto subscribe our names and affix our seals to this Indenture: This first day of June, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and fifty seven. —
