Paid
Recd to King & King March 5th 1859

King & King
from
Stephen Rawleigh
Know all men by these presents, that whereas, Lewis W. Rawleigh, of the City of Paducah, State of Kentucky, has abused my confidence, and rendered himself unworthy of confidence and trust, by means of his fraudulent conduct in relation to money and property belonging to me in the hands of William C. Stuffington, in Dorchester County, Maryland, now therefore, I, Stephen Rawleigh, of the City of Paducah, State of Kentucky, do hereby make and appoint Messrs King & King, that is W. C. King & John D. A. King, of said City & State, my only true and lawful agents and Attorneys in fact, either one of whom may act without the other, to draw, receive, collect, sue for, control and manage all property belonging to me in the hands of William C. Stuffington, of Dorchester County, State of Maryland, receive all my monies from him, & to make a final settlement with him & all others of my affairs in the State of Maryland, or elsewhere, collect all monies that may be due me, to give receipts and acquittances, and to execute all other proper writings, and I do hereby revoke all power and authority that Lewis W. Rawleigh, once had to act as my agents, and my said Attorneys are requested to bring him & all others interested with him to a full and speedy settlement of all monies which he has collected for me in the State of Maryland, from S. Stuffington, or other persons, giving my said Attorneys full power and authority to institute all suits and legal proceedings in this State, or beyond the same, to carry out the powers hereinbefore granted, and my said Attorneys, are hereby authorized to do every thing which in their discretion may be deemed advantageous to my estate which is hereby intended to be placed in their hands. Given under my hand and seal, this 24th day of December 1858.
