

This section does not appear in the Code since it is of limited application. It is retained in the Session Laws to cover the possible event of a case in which the last injurious exposure to the hazards of an occupational disease occurred before June 1, 1939.

The only changes are in style.

[33.] 2.

[(d) Whenever by statute, charter, ordinances, resolution, regulation or policy adopted thereunder, whether as part of a pension system or otherwise, any benefit or benefits are furnished employees of employers covered under § 21(a)(2) of this article, the dependents and others entitled to benefits under this article as a result of the death of such employees, the benefit or benefits when furnished by the employer shall satisfy and discharge pro tanto or in full as the case may be, the liability or obligation of the employer and the Subsequent Injury Fund for any benefit under this article. If any benefits so furnished are less than those provided for in this article the employer or the Subsequent Injury Fund, or both shall furnish the additional benefit as will make up the difference between the benefit furnished and the similar benefit required in this article. Provided, however, that the computation of the additional benefit shall be applicable only at the time of the initial award of benefits and shall not be applicable to any cost of living adjustments after the initial award, and this provision] SECTION 9-610(A) OF THE LABOR AND EMPLOYMENT ARTICLE shall be retroactive to benefits received before July 1, 1980.

REVISOR'S NOTE: This section formerly appeared as the second clause of the third sentence of former Art. 101, § 33(d).

This section does not appear in the Code since it is of limited application. It is retained in the Session Laws to protect the rights of any covered employee who received benefits before July 1, 1980.

The only changes are in style.

The first and second sentences and the first clause of the third sentence of former Art. 101, § 33 are codified in § 9-610(a) of the Labor and Employment Article.

[36.] 3.

[(8) (i) This subsection] TITLE 9, SUBTITLE 6, PART XI OF THE LABOR AND EMPLOYMENT ARTICLE shall apply only to injuries occurring on or after July 1, 1968.

REVISOR'S NOTE: This section formerly appeared as Art. 101, § 36(8)(i).

This section does not appear in the Code because it is of limited application. It is retained in the Session Laws to cover the possible event of a case in which the injury occurred before July 1, 1968.
