Casualty insurance is:

(1) Insurance against legal, contractual or assumed liability for death, injury or disability of any human being, or for damage to property; and provision of medical, hospital, or surgical disability benefits to injured persons and funeral and death benefits to dependents, beneficiaries or personal representatives of persons killed, irrespective of legal liability of the insured, when issued as an incidental coverage with or supplemental to liability insurance; motor vehicle physical damage, burglary and theft, glass, [workmen's] WORKERS' compensation and employer's liability, boiler and machinery insurance.

72.

(6) This section shall not apply to life or health insurance, annuities, title insurance, insurance of wet marine and transportation risks, [workmen's] WORKERS' compensation insurance, employer's liability coverages, nor to any policy or type of coverage as to which the maximum possible loss to the insurer is not readily ascertainable on issuance of the policy.

80.

Where required in the form of annual statement required of the insurer, the reserve for outstanding losses under insurance against loss or damage from accident to or injuries suffered by an employee or other person and for which the insured is liable shall be computed as follows:

(3) For all [workmen's] WORKERS' compensation claims under policies written more than [three (3)] 3 years prior to the date as of which the statement is made, the reserve shall be the present value at [four percent (4%)] 4% interest of the determined and the estimated future payments.

(4) For all [workmen's] WORKERS' compensation claims under policies written in the [three (3)] 3 years immediately preceding the date as of which the statement is made, such reserve shall be [sixty-five percent (65%)] 65% of the earned compensation premiums of each of such [three] 3 years, less all loss and loss expense payments made in connection with such claims under policies written in the
