

5-305.

A covenant, promise, agreement or understanding in, or in connection with or collateral to, a contract or agreement relating to the construction, alteration, repair, or maintenance of a building, structure, appurtenance or appliance, including moving, demolition and excavating connected with it, purporting to indemnify the promisee against liability for damages arising out of bodily injury to any person or damage to property caused by or resulting from the sole negligence of the promisee or indemnitee, his agents or employees, is against public policy and is void and unenforceable. This section does not affect the validity of any insurance contract, [workmen's] WORKERS' compensation, or any other agreement issued by an insurer.

5-309.2.

(c) A law-enforcement officer who is injured in taking action under subsection (a) of this section is entitled to [Workmen's] WORKERS' Compensation, disability, death benefits, life insurance and all other benefits to the same extent as if the injury had been sustained in the officer's jurisdiction.

5-402.

(c) If the injury sustained is compensable under the MARYLAND Workers' Compensation [Law] ACT, an employee may not sue a fellow employee for tortious acts or omissions committed within the scope of employment.

[6-204.

(a) In actions at law, including issues from the orphans' court and appeals from the Workmen's Compensation Commission, pending in any of the courts of law of this State, upon suggestion in writing under oath of either of the parties to the action and not of counsel, that such party cannot have a fair and impartial trial in that county or judicial circuit in which the same may be pending, the court shall order and direct the record of proceedings in the action to be transmitted to a court of some other county within the circuit or to some other judicial circuit having jurisdiction in the action, for trial.

(b) The right of removal is waived by a party unless the written suggestion is filed within 60 days after the action is at issue or after an issue from an orphans' court or appeal from a Workmen's Compensation Commission is filed, or within 60 days of the docketing of any action removed from another county or transferred from the District Court. Thereafter an action may be removed only by order of court for good cause shown.

(c) In any action at issue on July 1, 1976, either party has a right of removal for 60 days thereafter or until 5 days preceding the date of trial, whichever is less.]

7-201.

(a) Except for an appeal from the [Workmen's] STATE WORKERS' Compensation Commission[,] or an appeal, by an individual claiming benefits, from a decision of the Board of Appeals of the DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMIC AND
