

(2) for death, within 30 days after the death.

(c) If the notice given under subsection (b) of this section is in writing, the notice shall:

(1) state the name and address of the covered employee;

(2) state, in plain language, the time, place, nature, and cause of the accidental PERSONAL injury; and

(3) be signed:

(i) for injury, by the covered employee or by an individual on behalf of the covered employee; or

(ii) for death, by at least 1 dependent of the covered employee or by an individual on behalf of the dependents of the covered employee.

9-707.

(a) If an accidental PERSONAL injury causes disability for more than 3 days or death, the employer shall report the accidental PERSONAL injury and the disability or death to the Commission within 10 days after receiving oral or written notice of the disability or death.

(c) Each report under subsection (a) or (b) of this section shall state:

(1) whether the accidental PERSONAL injury or occupational disease arose out of and in the course of employment;

(2) the time, cause, and nature of the disability and the accidental PERSONAL injury or occupational disease;

(3) the probable duration of the disability; and

(4) any other information that the Commission may require by regulation.

9-708.

(b) In the case of an accidental PERSONAL injury, the claim limitation period in § 9-709(b)(3) of this subtitle does not begin to run until the employer files a report with the Commission in accordance with § 9-707 of this subtitle if:

(1) the employer has been notified in accordance with § 9-704 of this subtitle; or

(2) the employer or a designated representative of the employer at the place where the accidental PERSONAL injury occurred knows about the disability or death of the covered employee.
