

Article – Natural Resources

3-103.

[(i) The Board of Review of the Department of Natural Resources does not have jurisdiction over any proceeding arising under this subtitle, and §§ 1-105 and 1-106 of this article are not applicable to decisions of the Service.]

3-712.

[(a) The Board of Review of the Department of Natural Resources does not have jurisdiction over any proceeding arising under this subtitle, and §§ 1-105 and 1-106 of this article are not applicable to the Board.]

5-603.

The Department shall administer forest conservation practices on privately owned forest land and manage publicly owned forest lands. Representatives of the United States Forest Service and the Cooperative Extension Service may meet with the Department in an advisory capacity. The Department shall keep a record of its proceedings. The Department and the district boards shall cooperate with existing public agencies in forest management practices, flood control, recreation, wildlife management, and related activities. The Department shall direct and coordinate the activities of the district boards and hear appeals from orders or decisions of the local boards. [Any person aggrieved by any order or decision of the Department may appeal to the Board of Review of the Department of Natural Resources as provided in Title 1 of this article.]

5-606.

(a) The district forestry board shall:

(7) Receive and pass on proposed work plans for cutting forest lands[. Any decision may be appealed to the board of review of the Department];

8-101.

[(d) "Board of Review" means Board of Review of the Department of Natural Resources.]

8-1803.

[(c) The Board of Review has no authority to hear or determine appeals from decisions of the Commission.]

[9-304.

Any person who has a recorded interest in land affected by any regulation adopted under this subtitle may appeal the regulation and designation of the person's land as wetland to the Board of Review of the Department as provided in Title 1 of this article. The proceedings shall be held in the county where the land is located, and the Board of Review shall view the land in question.]