

each year, and if the same shall not be paid in full by the thirtieth day of April following, it shall be the duty of the sheriff or tax collector to sell the land or lands so delinquent. The sale of lands for failure to pay such assessments shall be made at the courthouse door of the county in which the lands are situated, between the hours of ten o'clock in the forenoon and four o'clock in the afternoon. The existing law as to the collection of State and county taxes shall have application to the collection of drainage assessments under §§ [96-122] 96 THROUGH 122 OF THIS ARTICLE. It shall be the duty of the sheriff or tax collector to pay over to the county treasurer promptly the moneys so collected by him upon said tax assessments, to the end that the said treasurer may have funds in hand to meet the payments of interest and principal due upon the outstanding bonds as they mature. It shall be the duty of the county treasurer, and without any previous order from the board of drainage commissioners, to provide and pay the instalments of interest at the time and place as evidenced by the coupons attached to said bonds, and also to pay the annual instalments of the principal due on said bonds at the time and place as evidenced by the said bonds, and the said county treasurer shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and subject upon conviction to a fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court, if he shall wilfully fail to make prompt payments of the said interest and principal upon said bonds, and shall likewise be liable in a civil action for all damages which may accrue either to the board of drainage commissioners or the holder of said bonds, to either or both of which a right of action is hereby given. Should the total estimated cost of the proposed improvements to be made under §§ [96-122] 96 THROUGH 122 OF THIS ARTICLE, be less than an average of 25¢ per acre of the total area, then, and in that case, bonds shall not be issued but the assessment shall be collected in cash from the landowners.
