

(4) After the inmate has served any statutorily imposed minimum sentence, less the allowances for diminution of confinement provided for in §§ 638C and 700 of this article.

(f) While in the program, an inmate must remain in the inmate's approved dwelling except:

(1) With prior approval of the program administrator, to go directly to and from:

(i) The inmate's approved place of employment;

(ii) Medical or mental health treatment; or

(iii) Offices of the Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services.

(2) As required by legitimate medical or other emergencies; or

(3) As otherwise permitted or directed by the program administrator.

(g) (1) An inmate in the program shall be responsible for all the inmate's living expenses, including those for food, clothing, shelter, and utilities.

(2) Unless otherwise permitted by the Commissioner or the Commissioner's designee, as a condition of participation in the program, an inmate shall make court ordered payments for the support of dependents.

(h) (1) The Division shall determine the amount of reasonable payments to satisfy court ordered restitution owed by an inmate in the program and shall collect and disburse the payments.

(2) The Division shall determine the amount of, and collect from inmates in the program, a reasonable fee for the cost of electronic supervision.

(i) (1) (i) An inmate who willfully violates the conditions of the inmate's placement in the program is guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction is subject to imprisonment not exceeding 1 year.

(ii) Notwithstanding the provisions of § 690(c) of this article, a sentence under this subsection may be to the jurisdiction of the Division of Correction.

(2) An inmate who commits a misdemeanor or a felony has violated the conditions of the inmate's placement in the program.

(3) An inmate who willfully violates subsection (f) of this section is guilty of escape and on conviction may be punished under § 139 of this article.

(j) (1) Inmates in the program are not the agents or employees of the Division.

(2) Article 41, §4-701 of the Code does not apply to injuries sustained during private employment by inmates in the program.
