SECTION 6. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That the Laws of Maryland read as follows:

Article 19 - Comptroller

40.

(a) Each county, incorporated city or town and taxing district created by and situated within the State shall have its books, accounts, records and reports examined at least once during each fiscal year by the persons and for the purposes specified in this section. The examination shall be made by a certified public accountant in the capacity of either an independent auditor or official auditor of any county or incorporated city. The auditor shall be in compliance with the provisions of the Maryland Public Accountancy Act. The official auditor shall be approved by the Legislative Auditor for the purposes specified in this section. On such examination, inquiry shall be made into the methods, accuracy and legality of the accounts, records, files and reports of each county, incorporated city or town and taxing district. The Legislative Auditor upon his own initiative may review or audit the books, records and reports of any county, incorporated city or town or taxing district. Any county, incorporated city or town or taxing district may
